Dear Champions,

It was a spectacle of a performance you all have put up for the whole nation to see. From well-engineered cars to thoughtful pit booth ideas, the amount of effort you had put in was visibly evident.

The above analysis of your performance tells you what areas of the competition you need to work on. Work on the various aspects. Give time to research and develop your stance in the upcoming Season 3. Remember the more time you spend in planning, the smoother will your execution go.

Season 3 awaits you with an even bigger platform and exciting new pages. Keep learning and keep growing from a beginner to an intermediate to a professional.
